Artwork for the International Collection of Child Art.
Milner Library, Box 8900, Illinois State University, Normal, IL 61790-8900
Visit our website: http://www.ilstu.edu/icca

This artwork will be considered an irrevocable gift to Illinois State University Milner Library’s International Collection of Child Art, which contains over 8,600 original pieces from more than 50 countries. The artwork may be included in the ICCA’s permanent collection, digital collection*, and/or included in traveling exhibits. See the list of “Suggested Topics” on the website, or on the “Contributing Artwork” page.

The ICCA may publish information which identifies children providing the artwork. Name, age, gender, country of origin, and title of the art, and artist’s comments may be used in the digital collection, traveling exhibits, or additional material used to support and promote the collection.

To be attached to the back of each piece of artwork:

Date produced ___________ 20___
Young artist’s name: Last_________________________ First________________________ Birth date: _______________ Boy ___ Girl ___, present age _____Grade level in school: _____

Title of the work: "___________________________________________"
Medium: ______________________________________________________
Young artist’s comment about the work: ______________________________________
___________________________________________
(continue on back if artist has more narrative to add)

General information:
Teacher: (classroom and/or art teacher) _______________ School: __________________________
Town, State, Country: ________________________________________________

Additional comments:

Thank you,
Kathleen Lonbom
Director, International Collection of Child Art
Milner Library, Box 8900
Illinois State University
Normal, IL 61790-8900
e-mail: klonbom@ilstu.edu

*Neither text nor images published on the ICCA’s website are available for the use in the public domain. Images published on the ICCA website are available for educational use (research, homework, papers, etc.) within fair use as permitted under the copyright law. Any commercial use or publication without written permission is strictly prohibited. Contributed artwork may not be reproduced, reused, re-posted, distributed, modified or otherwise altered for commercial use.